

Seattle Children's Presents: A Virtual CME Event

Caring for Gender Diverse Youth

Join us for a discussion and claim Category II CME credit

Tuesday, April 6, 2021

6:00 to 7:15 p.m.

Webex Virtual CME Event

Presented by Seattle Children's:
Juanita Hodax, MD, Pediatric Endocrinologist,
Gender Clinic Medical Co-Director
and
Lara Hayden, MSW, LICSW, Gender Clinic
Program Manager

Title: Caring for Gender Diverse Youth

Learning Objectives:

- Recognize the health disparities faced by transgender youth and the need for specialized care and affirming primary care.
- Recognize the importance of using a transgender patient's preferred name and pronoun in your daily practice.
- Discuss current clinical guidelines.
- Identify appropriate referrals for Seattle Children's Gender Clinic.

Agenda

6:00 - 6:10 p.m. – Introductions, updates, announcements

6:10 - 7:00 p.m. – Juanita's & Lara's presentation

7:00 - 7:15 p.m. – Q&A

Tuesday, April 6, 2021

6:00 to 7:15 p.m.

Webex Virtual CME Event

RSVP by April 2

RSVP by Email to:

Kenton.mcallister@seattlechildrens.org

RSVP by TEXT to:

509-222-8183

Hosted by:

Kenton McAllister (Seattle Children's)
Physician Relations

Seattle Children's®
HOSPITAL • RESEARCH • FOUNDATION