

Seattle Children's Presents: A Virtual CME Event

New Thoughts and Algorithms for Workup and Management of Pediatric Urologic Conditions

Join us for a discussion and claim Category II CME credit

Wednesday, October 28, 2020
5:30 to 6:45 p.m. MDT
WebEx Virtual CME Event

Presented by Seattle Children's:
Paul Merguerian, MD, MS; Mark Cain, MD;
Carlyn Doyle, NP (Community Medical)

Wednesday, October 28, 2020
5:30 to 6:45 p.m. MDT
WebEx Virtual CME Event

RSVP by October 27

RSVP by Email to:

Kenton.mcallister@seattlechildrens.org

or

MSwanson@communitymed.org

Hosted by:

Kenton McAllister (Seattle Children's)
Marc Swanson (Community Medical)

Learning Objectives:

New Thoughts and Algorithms (Mark & Paul)

- Understanding recent changes in categorizing and recommended management of prenatal hydronephrosis
- Update in evaluation and treatment of pediatric UTI, with emphasis on new guidelines for managing vesicoureteral reflux
- Timing and evaluation for common genital problems

Pediatric Dysfunctional Elimination (Carlyn)

- Identifying bowel and bladder dysfunction
- Imaging, services and sedation available at Community Medical Center
- When to refer to pediatric urology

Agenda

- 5:30 - 5:40 p.m. MDT – Roles and responsibilities; explaining the presence of 24/7 pediatric urology care in Missoula (relationship of Seattle Children's/Carlyn Doyle/Five Valleys)
- 5:40 - 6:10 p.m. MDT – Paul's and Mark's presentation
- 6:10 - 6:30 p.m. MDT – Carlyn Doyle's presentation
- 6:30 - 6:45 p.m. MDT – Q&A*

*Questions can be asked during the live event via the 'chat' box OR submit questions prior to:
Kenton.mcallister@seattlechildrens.org

Seattle Children's®
HOSPITAL • RESEARCH • FOUNDATION