

Seattle Children's Presents: A Virtual CME Event Psychiatry and Behavioral Science Update

Join us for a discussion and claim Category II CME credit

Tuesday, October 26, 2021
6 to 7:15 p.m.
Webex Virtual CME Event

Presented by Seattle Children's Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine

Lawrence Sagin Wissow, MD

Tuesday, October 26, 2021
6 to 7:15 p.m.
Webex Virtual CME Event

RSVP by October 25th

RSVP by Email to:
Dawn.Tamaki-Riley@seattlechildrens.org

RSVP by TEXT to:
425-681-8671
Please leave your name, title and clinic

Hosted by:
Seattle Children's Physician Relations -
Kenton McAllister, Jen Mueller, and Dawn
Riley

Learning Objectives:

- Recognize trends in mental health and social problems among children and their families
- Be able to describe a range of potential interventions in primary care for both children and parents

Agenda

6:00 – 6:10 p.m. Introductions
6:10 – 7:00 p.m. Presentation
7:00 – 7:15 p.m. Q&A*

*Questions can be asked during the event by electronically raising your hand. How to do so will be explained during the introductions OR you may submit questions prior to:
Dawn.Tamaki-Riley@seattlechildrens.org

Seattle Children's[®]
HOSPITAL • RESEARCH • FOUNDATION